

We are delighted to invite you to insert event name at insert venue date and time. You can register for the event here.

Commented [KW1]: Link to event page on zoom/eventbrite

Living Wage Week is the annual celebration of the Living Wage movement and will take place 6-12th November 2023. To mark Living Wage Week this year, we'll be insert info about the event.

You might want to share some further context about the event here - info on the theme for LWW or regional objectives/achievements.

At the event we will be:

Share overview agenda

We will also be inviting organisations who aren't yet accredited to come and be part of this expanding network of individuals and organisations who believe in fair pay. If there are any organisations in your network or supply chain who aren't yet accredited, please do share the invite with them and encourage them to come.

Please see the event registration page for accessibility information and please let us know about any access requirements you have via the registration form.

Commented [KW2]: Link to event page zoom/eventbrite

Insert info about catering/refreshments.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Best wishes,